

Dear Parents and Friends,

12th December 2025

It has been a glorious week celebrating the Birth of Jesus with our joyous nativities from both Reception Class and Year 1 and 2. The children clearly enjoyed singing and retelling the story of the Nativity, bringing home the true meaning of Christmas.

We also heard the Rock Steady Musicians perform their end of term concert. It is so good to see the children gain in confidence.

As part of our Advent preparation, Fr. Charles has visited the school for reconciliations in Years 4 to 6, allowing children space to reflect on their preparations for Christmas.

I wish everyone a good weekend.

Yours sincerely,
Michelle Fusi
Headteacher

Advent Service

Thursday 18th December – 10:50 a.m.

Parents are very welcome to our special Advent Service, which is for the whole school. Classes in Key Stage 2 will be singing individual items alongside poems, prayers, readings and congregational carols.

Online Safety

Tuesday 16th December

Three Mobile will be delivering workshops to all pupils on how to be safe on the internet. This will cover gaming platforms as well as social media.

Christmas Crackers

Thank you to all who have donated a box of Christmas Crackers for our Christmas Dinner Day on the 17th December.

We still need around 130 crackers (not boxes!) so, if you are able, we would love to have some more.

Christmas Dinner Day and Disco

Wednesday 17th December

ALL children can come to school dressed in their party Christmas outfits on that day.

Tickets are available on the FOSH website Disco Tickets

Don't forget to order your child's Christmas Lunch on Select.
